Amendment to be offered by Senator Domenici

(2nd degree: substitute)

(a) The Senate finds that:

(1) Our success in the fight against crime and improvements in the administration of justice are the result of a bi-partisan effort; and

(2) Since 1993 the Congress and the President have increased justice funding by 92%, and a strong commitment to law enforcement and the administration of justice remains appropriate.

(b) It the sense of the Senate that the levels in this resolution assume that funds to improve the justice system will be available as follows:

(1) $665 million for the expanded support of direct federal enforcement, adjudicative, and correctional-detention activities;

(2) $50 million in additional funds to combat terrorism, including cyber crime;

(3) $41 million in additional funds for construction costs for the Federal Bureau of Prisons and the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center;

(4) $200 million in support of Customs and INS port of entry officers for the development and implementation of the ACE computer system designed to meet critical trade and border security needs; and

(5) funding is available for the continuation of such programs as: the Byrne Grant Program, Violence Against Women, Juvenile Accountability Block Grants, First Responder Training, Local law Enforcement Block Grants, Weed and Seed, Violent Offender Incarceration and Truth in Sentencing, State Criminal Alien Assistance Program, Drug Courts, Residential Substance Abuse Treatment, Crime Identification Technologies, Bullet Proof Vests, Counter terrorism, Interagency Law Enforcement Coordination.
