

Most On-Time Spending Bills in 20 Years

DEFENSE

NOW: FY 2019 enacted on Sept. 18, 2018
THEN: FY 2009 enacted on Sept. 30, 2008

Congress has not passed five annual spending bills in one fiscal year since 1996.*

LABOR-HHS-EDUCATION

NOW: FY 2019 enacted on Sept. 18, 2018
THEN: FY 1997 enacted on Sept. 30, 1996

ENERGY AND WATER

NOW: FY 2019 enacted on Sept. 12, 2018
THEN: FY 2000, enacted on Sept. 29, 1999

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION-VA

NOW: FY 2019 enacted on Sept. 12, 2018
THEN: FY 2017 enacted on Sept. 29, 2016

More spending bills will be enacted on time this year than at anytime since 1996.

LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

NOW: FY 2019 enacted on Sept. 12, 2018

THEN: FY 2010 enacted on Oct. 1, 2009

This will be the first time that the Defense Department will not operate under a continuing resolution in more than a decade.

*Spending bills still to be completed: Agriculture, Commerce-Justice-Science, Financial Services-General Government, Homeland Security, State-Foreign Operations, and Transportation-HUD

*According to the Congressional Research Service